

Palm Management in the Florida Landscape

Date: February 28-29, 2012 (2 days - Tuesday and Wednesday)

Time: 7:45 AM – 5:00 PM each day

Location: University of Florida - IFAS
Fort Lauderdale Research and Education Center
3205 College Avenue
Davie, FL 33314

Registration Fee: $300, checks only, payable to the “University of Florida”

Reservations/Payment By: February 14, 2012 (or until class fills up)

Enrollment Limit: 40 persons. Enrollment will be limited to 3 persons per company. If space is still available after February 15, this enrollment cap will be lifted.

CEUs requested: LIAF, ISA, FNGLA and FDACS (pesticide license)

Topics

(classroom presentations and field trip to palm groves on site)

- Diagnosing Palm Problems
- Palm Anatomy and Growth
- Physiological Disorders
- Nutrient Deficiencies
- Sampling and Leaf Analysis
- Transplant Issues
- Palm Insects
- Palm Diseases
- Normal Abnormalities
- Fertilizer Formulations
- Fertilizer Application Techniques
- Pruning Palms

Instructors:

- Dr. Timothy Broschat, Palm Horticulturist, Nutrition and Fertilization
- Dr. Monica Elliott, Palm Pathologist, Fungal Diseases
- Dr. Robin Giblin-Davis, Palm Entomologist/Nematologist
- Dr. Nigel Harrison, Palm Pathologist, Phytoplasma Diseases
- Dr. Catharine Mannion, Ornamental Entomologist

For more information and to reserve your spot for “Palm School”, contact:
Dr. Monica Elliott at melliott@ufl.edu or 954/577-6315