2012 OKEECHOBEE YOUTH LIVESTOCK SHOW

RULES

UPDATES AND REVISIONS ARE IN BOLD, UNDERLINED TYPE!!!

IMPORTANT NOTE: All project entry forms are included at the end of this rule book. Additionally, copies of these entry forms are available from your FFA and 4-H advisors and the Extension Office.

Revised 05/11

----- GENERAL RULES -----

1. Exhibitor must be an active Okeechobee 4-H or FFA member in good standing enrolled by October 31, 2011.
2. Exhibitor must live in Okeechobee County or be currently enrolled in the Okeechobee County School District. Anyone having graduated shall be ineligible to enter the show.
3. Physical conditions of exhibitor which the Show Committee considers to be a health and safety problem in the show or sale may result in the committee not accepting an entry or allowing the entrant to participate in the show or sale.

4. Age Requirements

- a. Exhibitor must be at least eight (8) years old by September 1, 2011, to exhibit Beef Breeding, Dairy, Goats, Lambs, Poultry, Rabbits, Steers, and Swine.
- b. Exhibitors between the ages of eight and ten (10) years old by September 1, 2011, who are exhibiting Steers or Dairy and/or Beef Breeding over 14 months old as of March 1, 2012, must have previously shown that same animal at two prior shows with proof of such exhibition to be verified by OYLS upon day of check-in for the OYLS Show.
- c. First time exhibitors must be 10 years old by September 1, 2011, to exhibit bulls over 14 months old as of March 1, 2012.

5. The Okeechobee Youth Livestock Show Committee believes that every youth exhibitor should receive proper training information for raising and showing a youth animal project. It is important that the exhibitor understand the purpose and importance of ethics in youth livestock projects, proper animal handling and management, and the difference between animal welfare and animal rights. The Mandatory Youth Livestock Show Ethics and Animal Care Workshop is designed to meet these requirements. Every youth exhibitor is required to attend a workshop and obtain certification. Certification is valid for a 3 year period. This program has been endorsed by the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services and the University of Florida, IFAS. Dates and times of where and when the workshops will be held will be available from 4-H Club Leaders, FFA Advisors, and the Florida State Fair website www.floridastatefairag.com after they have been scheduled.

6. All entry forms must be signed by the exhibitor's FFA Advisor or County Extension Agent before being turned in.

- a. Steer entry forms are due at weigh-in, September 10, 2011.
- b. Beef Breeding entry forms and pictures must be turned in to the Okeechobee County Extension Office at 458 Highway 98 North before November 7, 2011, at 5:00 PM. Purebred entry forms must also include a copy of the registration papers or the application for registration if not already registered. (*see Rule #7 regarding administrative fee)
- c. Swine entry forms are due at check-in, December 3, 2011.
- d. Lamb and Goat entry forms are due at weigh-in, December 3, 2011. (*see Rule #7 regarding administrative fee)
- e. Dairy entry forms must be turned into the Okeechobee County Extension Office at 458 Highway 98 North before January 2, 2012, at 5:00 PM. Entry forms must include a copy of the Grade ID papers, registration papers, or the application for registration if not already registered. (*see rule #7 regarding administrative fee)
- f. Rabbit and Poultry entry forms must be turned into the Okeechobee County Extension Office at 458 Highway 98 North before January 2, 2012, at 5:00 PM.

7. A $10 administrative fee will be assessed per animal entry for Beef Breeding, Dairy, Goats, and Lambs. This fee will be deducted from the exhibitor's check.
8. An exhibitor may enter and show six (6) animals or exhibits with a maximum of four (4) entries in one category. Poultry may be paired and considered as one entry with a maximum of 4 paired entries. Exhibitor may enter only one animal per class. Exhibitor may initially weigh-in only one Steer or check-in only one Market Hog.
9. All animals must comply with State and/or Federal health regulations. All animals must have a Health Certificate signed by an accredited Veterinarian.
10. No Steers or Dairy animals will be permitted with horns.
11. All animals (except Swine, Rabbits and Poultry) must have a permanent tattoo and/or brand that are unique to that animal for individual identification, prior to entry. Permanent number must be recorded on entry form. (NO flap tags, brucellosis tattoo or ranch brand).
12. All animals must be approved by a sifting committee as to quality and breed characteristics, along with fitness and grooming, so as to be a credit to the show and sale.
13. Exhibitor must show his/her own animal, except on permission of the committee and stand-in is not eligible for showmanship. Showmanship contest exhibitors must use his/her own entry.
14. Exhibitor must manage his/her animal to the satisfaction of the show committee. All rejected animals must be removed immediately from the grounds and will not be allowed to show or sell. Animals can be rejected at anytime from the show by the show committee. No nose tongs or nose rings will be permitted, except on Bulls.
15. All animals must have an exhibitor's identification card.
16. All animals must have a suitable halter and neck rope and must be shown with a halter (except Swine, Rabbits, Lambs, and Poultry).
17. Use of tranquilizers or other forms of tampering is prohibited.
18. Exhibitor must keep his/her animals, stall space, and the barn in general, clean and neat as possible and must provide a suitable feed box. There will be a monetary penalty charged if stall space is not kept presentable.
19. Exhibitors must wear appropriate dress of the organization designated by the 4-H or FFA advisors during the Show and Sale.
20. Exhibitor will be responsible for the care of his/her animal until it is removed from the barn. Non-sale, milking dairy animals can, at the exhibitor's option, be removed after the Dairy show on Tuesday night and prior to Wednesday at noon. Additionally, cattle only (not the exhibitor) will be excused to go to another show with confirmation of entry into that other show and 30-day advance notification in writing to the livestock show committee. All other animals must remain until Sunday morning or be subject to a penalty.

21. There will be three Showmanship divisions in each of the seven shows (Beef Breeding, Dairy, Goat, Lamb, Rabbit, Steer, and Swine). Participation is mandatory. Showman of chapter/club animals must be designated at time of initial entry.

- i) Junior 11 Years Old and Younger as of 9//11.
- ii) Intermediate 12, 13 & 14 Years Old as of 9//11.
- iii) Senior 15 Years Old and older as of 9//11.

22. Exhibitors are required to attend the designated workday or to perform other work to be designated by the OYLS committee. Failure to follow this rule will result in a $100 fine and the exhibitor will not be eligible to show the following year. Exhibitors must sign in and sign out to receive credit for the workday.

23. A stamped, addressed envelope with a thank-you letter to the buyer of your animal must be turned in to the Okeechobee County Extension Office on or before MONDAY, April 2, 2012, at 5:00 pm or a $100 fee will be deducted from the sale check. If your thank-you letter was not previously turned into the Okeechobee County Extension Office, it must be brought to the annual meeting with a stamped, addressed envelope before you receive your sale check.

24. A thank-you plaque, which will hold a 5 X 7 picture that will be given to the buyer by the exhibitor, must be brought to the Annual Meeting before you receive your sale check. Picture will be given to the exhibitor at the Annual Meeting.

25. If, at any time, the OYLS Committee determines the exhibitor is not directly responsible for the care and welfare of their project or that anyone other than the exhibitor profits from the sale of the animal, the OYLS Committee reserves the right to prohibit that exhibitor from participation in the show and sale.

26. All exhibitors shall turn in a completed record book by the due dates established by the 4-H and/or FFA. Exhibitors submitting record books within one week after the due date must pay a $100 late fee in order to be eligible to show in the OYLS the following year. Late record books submitted after this one week period may be accepted by 4-H/FFA, but will not be considered on time by the committee.

27. No professional fitter will be allowed to assist or groom any animal or said animal will be disqualified from the show and sale.

28. Special barn rules may be posted.

29. Inappropriate conduct will not be tolerated. The Okeechobee Youth Livestock Show Committee has the authority to ban anyone for conduct deemed to be inappropriate.

30. Show management is in no way responsible for exhibits or any accidents that may occur.

31. Final interpretation and administration of all rules is vested in the Livestock Show Committee and its decision is final. Any changes or amendments to these rules can only take place with 2/3 majority vote of the entire Livestock Show Committee.

SPECIAL RULES FOR “TRIPLE CROWN”

1. Exhibitor must compete in 3 of the following categories in which only one is a market animal (steer, swine).

Steer or Swine, Beef Breeding, Dairy, Lamb or Boer Goat

2. If exhibitor chooses to show in the Lamb or Boer Goat category, they must choose one or the other. The exhibitor may not register both a Lamb and a Boer Goat in the Triple Crown.
3. Each exhibitor qualified to participate in the Triple Crown must register prior to showing their projects. If showing a Lamb or Boer Goat, Triple Crown registration must be completed at the Small Animal mandatory meeting on Friday, March 9, 2012. If not showing a Lamb or Boer Goat, registration must be completed by Monday March 12, 2012, at the Dairy, Steer, Swine & Beef Breeding mandatory meeting.
4. If exhibitor is showing more than one animal in a specific category, such as Beef Breeding or Dairy, the highest place will be scored.
5. The Triple Crown is an individual award and club projects are ineligible.
6. Total points earned will be based on Class Rank, Showmanship Rank, and overall Grand and Reserve Champion of each category.
7. All special show rules for each category apply.
