

Africanized Honey Bee Training

Tuesday April 15, 2008

Okeechobee County Extension Education Office
458 Highway 98 North,
Okeechobee, FL 34972-2303

Morning Session: 10:00 a.m. - Noon

Training for First-Responders

(Fire Fighters, EMTs, Law Enforcement, 911 Supervisors & Personnel)

Afternoon Session: 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Training for Outdoor Workers

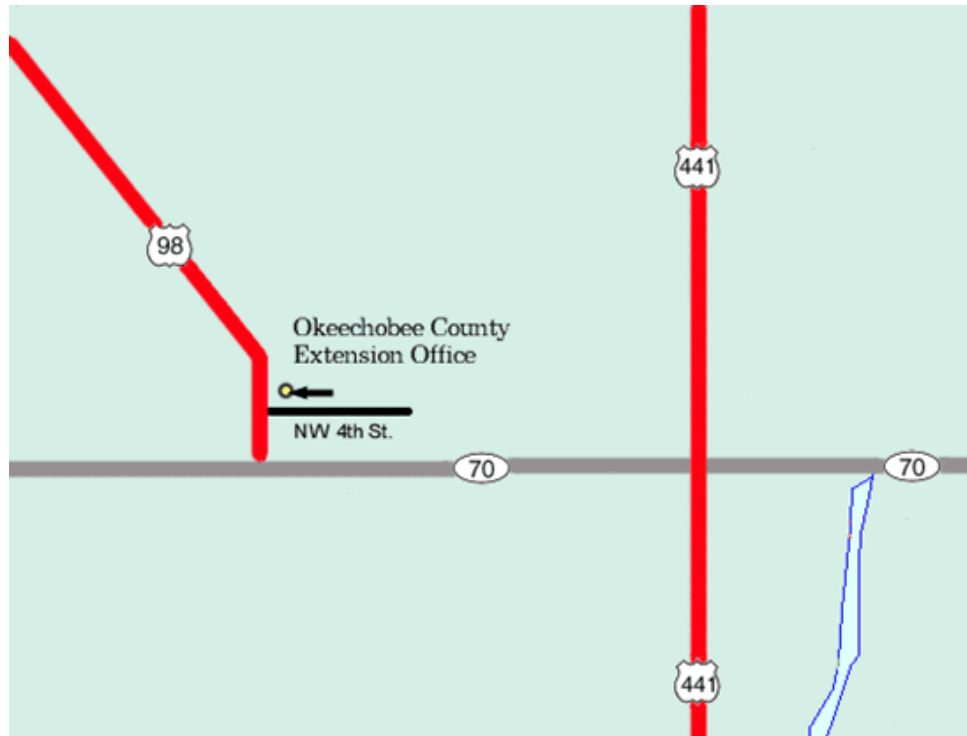

(Parks, Utilities, Right-of-Way Maintenance,
School Maintenance, Farm Workers)

Public Information Session 5:00- 6:30 p.m.

This program is free because of a grant from the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

Location of Okeechobee Extension Office

Please register to attend this training to ensure enough teaching materials for all attendees.

To register for either session or for more information, please contact:

Dan Culbert, Extension Agent III- Environmental Horticulture
dfculbert@ifas.ufl.edu (863) 763-6469

AHB Training Agendas:

Morning: Training for First-Responders (Fire Fighters, EMTs, Law Enforcement, 911 Personnel)

- 10:00 Africanized Honey Bee Biology and Behavior
- 11:00 Personal Protection Equipment and Tactics
- 11:30 Rescue / Extraction Demonstration
- 12:00 Conclusion

Afternoon: Training for Outdoor & Field Workers (Parks, Utilities, Right-of-Way Maintenance, School Maintenance, Agricultural Workers)

- 2:00 Africanized Honey Bee Biology and Behavior
- 3:00 Personal Protection Equipment and Response
- 3:30 Swarm and Colony Control Recommendations
- 4:00 Conclusion